THE EVOLUTION OF AIRPORT SECURITY AND CREATION OF THE TRANSPORTATION SECURITY ADMINISTRATION (TSA)

SPEAKER: JIM SPRIGGS, ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER FOR THE TSA DETROIT FIELD OFFICE

Jim Spriggs is a former Director and Manager for American Airlines with fifteen years of aviation management experience. Jim spent his career working in Chicago, Detroit and St. Louis and currently supports the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) in Detroit (DTW) with responsibility for budgeting, finance; human resources and other functions for more than 900 DTW based employees. Having managed in some of the largest Midwest cities and having supported American Airlines with the acquisition of Trans World Airlines in 2001, he brings a unique understanding of how airline security evolved and the impact of 9/11 on air transportation today. A question and answer period will follow.
