

DETROIT METROPOLITAN APARTMENT ASSOCIATION

GENERAL MEMBERSHIP BREAKFAST MEETING

DATE/TIME: Wednesday, September 10, 2008 from 8:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.
(Board meeting follows; all are welcome)

PLACE: Glen Oaks Country Club
30500 West Thirteen Mile, Farmington Hills, MI 48334

TOPIC: Could Your Workplace Be Better Prepared?
Learn how to protect employees and your facility. Implementing a comprehensive, organization-wide safety, preparedness and business continuity program is an enormous task. Fortunately, the Red Cross has compiled a package of resources and simple, affordable solutions that will help you build a safer workplace. This information session has been designed specifically for you!

Speaker: Kathy Danaher
American Red Cross, Health & Safety Services
Kathy is the Marketing Coordinator for Health & Safety Services at the American Red Cross Southeastern Michigan Chapter. She started with the Red Cross when she was a student at Central Michigan University, becoming a CPR/First Aid instructor in 1989. From 1989 until 1997 she was a volunteer instructor in Mt. Pleasant and the Detroit area. In 1998 she joined the SEM chapter as a full time employee. Since 2002 she have coordinated our Workplace Emergency Preparedness Education efforts locally and participated in many national training efforts. In addition to these educational duties she sits on the national product review committee and coordinates all local retail product development.
